

Particulars of facilities available to citizens for obtaining information on Department of Space/Indian Space Research Organisation

ISRO website (<http://www.isro.gov.in>) contains Annual Report, Space India, Press Releases, biodata of present and past Chairmen, Sponsored Research, etc., and other information pertaining to DOS/ISRO.

Exhibitions at ISAC, VSSC, SDSC-SHAR, SAC, etc., for people to see the achievements of Indian space programme and appreciate the nuances of space science and technology.

Celebrations of events like National Science Day and World Space Week during which Centres celebrate Open Day facilitating the visit of students and general public and conduct various competitions like essay writing, debate, model making and quiz competitions for students on science and space themes.

Industrial visits to major work centers of ISRO for graduate level students to expose them to the challenges in pursuing space technology.

ISRO also participates in exhibitions, technical conferences, public fairs on science events in schools and colleges providing information on India's space programme.

Video capsules highlighting India's achievements in space as well as space application projects are produced and telecast on Doordarshan and are made available to museums and interested educational institutions and government departments, etc.